The above must be signed so we have your signature on file. One member in cabin can pay for both cabins. You can pay by check. Be sure to indicate if you need a single supplement and add that amount to your cabin choice. Once you complete this you can sign and fax all pages to 877-439-8929 or 909-396-0014 or main to:

International Food Wine & Travel Writers Association
1142 Diamond Bar Boulevard #177
Diamond Bar, CA 91765

Your credit card will be charged the amount indicated and your cabin reserved.

There will be a minimum non-refundable cancellation charge of $75. Once Holland America provides us with the date schedule for cancellation and insurance, we will advise.

At this point, our cut off date for reservations is September 15. This may be extended, but cabins are on a first come, first serve basis. We have cabins blocked, but when they are full, we will have to request more if available.

New Members: If you are a member of SATW, ASJA, SJA, NY, Midwest, IACP, NATJA or other established writer's organizations you automatically qualify. Just put that on your application. You have to fill out the application.

What does the IFWTWA Registration Fee cover?

The time it takes to process your application, continuing education, organized functions on ship and shore, welcome and pillow gifts.

Can I book directly and still take part in IFWTWA events: NO

We will be advising events we get arranged on land and speakers, once they are confirmed.

We will advise you of hotel we secure in Ft. Lauderdale for early arrivals.

All attendees are responsible for transportation to the Port of FT. Lauderdale. Holland America does not believe its contracted air price is better than the competitive prices found on the internet. Therefore, it is up to you to secure your own air.
